Possible key questions for reflection include: How does self-knowledge help teachers positively shape their professional lives? How does school culture shape the day-to-day life of teachers and how do you identify a school culture that is right for you? How does the current emphasis on standardized testing impact the life of a teacher and how can teachers positively respond to this? What does it mean to be a role model and what are the challenges and opportunities presented by this social role? What does community mean and how are teachers participants in and facilitators of positive community? Exploration of these questions will occur through student centered, hands-on, and interactive classroom activities.

EDUC-X 152: Mapping Your Future: How to Make the Most Out of Your College Experience is an eight-week, two credit, graded seminar course designed for students to investigate the purposes of an undergraduate education at IU Bloomington and to expose them to the array of skills, tools, and opportunities that academic advisors, career coaches, and the university have to offer. The assignments and activities in the course include a mixture of readings, class discussions, journaling, out-of-class-activities, and a culminating semester project. By the end of the course, students should have a better understanding of themselves, their academic and career interests, and a plan to maximize their opportunities as an IU Bloomington student.
Above class meets 100% Online through Asynchronous instruction. For more information visit https://fall2020.iu.edu/learning-modes/

For Freshmen and Transfer students
An introduction to college life and culture. This course includes guest lectures, campus tours, in-class discussions, and strategies for organization and study skills. You'll get involved on campus, visit with professors as well as academic and career advisors and, best of all, there will be many opportunities for multicultural dialogue and forming friendships in a small group. It's all the stuff you want to know about and do, inside and outside of the classroom, except with this class you get credit for it.

Above class is a temporary holding section for unassigned major performance study. Students who register by the first Tuesday of the term will be administratively reassigned to an appropriate permanent class by the end of the first week. In addition to registering for a holding section, students should also register for the holding master class section under Jeremy Allen's name (MUS-I 300 for undergraduate students, or MUS-I 500 for graduate students). Students who register in the Dean's holding section master class will also be administratively reassigned to the appropriate studio master class, if available.
