In this course, students will begin to explore the personal, institutional, political, and cultural forces that impact the lived experience of being a professional teacher. Possible key questions for reflection include: How does self-knowledge help teachers positively shape their professional lives? How does school culture shape the day-to-day life of teachers and how can you identify a school culture that is right for you? How do your own experiences in education practice and/or community? These questions will occur through student centered, hands-on, and interactive classroom activities.

VT: YOU@IU

For additional information, please email Anthony Guest-Scott aguestsc@iu.edu

This class meets for the first 13 weeks of the semester (ending the week before Thanksgiving Break), and will be taught through live virtual meetings at the scheduled class times.

For Freshman and Transfer students

An introduction to college life and culture, this course includes guest lectures, campus tours, in-class discussions, and strategies for organization and study skills. You'll get involved on campus, visit with professors as well as academic and career advisors and, best of all, there will be many opportunities for multicultural dialogue and forming friendships in a small group. It's all the stuff you want to know about and do, inside and outside of the classroom, except with this class you get credit for it.

F 550 : Students in the above class should be aware that a flexible schedule is required when scheduling coachings with their faculty coach. Students must attend the Chamber Music course meeting held in the first week of classes to find out important information regarding group sign-up and placement auditions. Time and location of the meetings will be announced to enrolled students and will be posted on the chamber music website at HTTP://TINYURL.COM/NOWQRQM. All members of the group must be enrolled in MUS-F450 or F550, unless making up an incomplete. Students must obtain the permission and signature of a faculty coach for their group and receive seven coachings, performing at least once in a public setting. Groups that are unable to find a chamber coach will be assigned to a faculty member by the Head of Chamber Music. Visit the above chamber music website for further details on guidelines and required paperwork or email chmusic@indiana.edu with questions.
